

Montgomery County Resource Recovery Project

Hawkins represented Montgomery County, Maryland as special contract counsel in the development and implementation of the County's 2,000 TPD waste-to-energy plant. Our services included procurement, drafting and negotiation of the design-build-finance-operate-maintain contract for the waste-to-energy facility, and contract negotiations with the governmental agency that provided financing for the project and the railroad company hauling ash to the ash disposal site.

Clients: Montgomery County, Maryland

Role: Special Counsel

Distinction: One of the Largest Waste-to-Energy Projects in the United States

Delivery Method: Design-Build-Finance-Operate-Maintain (P3)

Project Size: 2,000 TPD

Capital Cost: $360 Million

Contract Value: $1.1 Billion

Contract Term: 20 Years

Contract Counterparties: Covanta

Awards: US EPA Clean Air Technology Award and Three Time SWANA Gold Integrated Solid Waste Management System Excellence Award

Attorney

- Eric Sapir

Practices

- Alternative Project Delivery
- Project Finance
- Public-Private Partnerships

Industry

HAWKINS

- Solid Waste