

La Crosse Air Pollution Control RDF Retrofit Project

Hawkins served as lead counsel for La Crosse County, Wisconsin in connection with the negotiation of a long-term contract extension to implement a Clean Air Act retrofit of an existing privately owned refuse-derived fuel project serving the region. The contract addressed complex solid waste commitments and processing and ash disposal responsibilities.

Clients: County of La Crosse, Wisconsin

Role: Lead Negotiation Counsel

Distinction: Major Pollution Control Modifications to Existing Waste-to-Energy Facility

Delivery Method: Design-Build-Own-Finance-Operate-Maintain (P3)

Project Size: 73,000 TPY

Capital Cost: $11 Million

Contract Value: $35 Million

Contract Term: 20 Year Extension

Contract Counterparties: Xcel Energy

Attorney

- Eric Sapir

Practices

- Alternative Project Delivery
- Project Finance
- Public-Private Partnerships

Industries

- Power and Renewable Energy

HAWKINS

- Solid Waste