

Sam Litton Recognized as Bond Buyer "Rising Star"

08.19.2024

Hawkins is pleased to announce the selection of Sam Litton as one of The Bond Buyer's 2024 "Rising Stars".

Sam leads the firm's New York transportation practice, oversees major clients and is the lead partner for significant representations.

The Rising Stars program recognizes municipal finance professionals under the age of 40 who have made positive contributions for their community while demonstrating exceptional leadership, excellent collaboration skills, innovation and creativity in their roles. The program showcases the brightest young minds in this industry.

Hawkins is one of the municipal industry's more storied law firms. Founded in 1854, the firm gained a reputation in the 19th Century for specialized expertise in the area of governmental finance. The firm continues to break new ground for its clients in finance transactions, including public power, transportation, housing, health care, higher education, cultural institutions and public contract representation, including public/private partnerships. Hawkins is perennially rated among the very top bond counsel and underwriters' counsel nationally.

The firm's offices are located in New York, New Jersey (Newark), California (Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Sacramento), Connecticut (Hartford), Michigan (Ann Arbor), Oregon (Portland), North Carolina (Raleigh), and Washington, D.C.
